Sommario/riassunto	The Bureau of Consumer Protection of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC) presents the full text of the September 2001 consumer alert "Helping Victims of the Terrorist Attacks: Your Guide to Giving Wisely" in PDF format. The alert offers tips for consumers who wish to donate money for the victims of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The tips include giving directly to the charity and not the solicitors for the charity, refusing to give out personal or financial information, and not giving cash.
