Note generali	Title from title screen (viewed on Apr. 14, 2005). "America's cities, states and landmarks are vivid reminders of our rich heritage, and the need to defend and protect them are important now more than ever before. This is a daily challenge that each and every one of us must undertake if we are to remain the strongest country in the world. The message is simple ... observe and report." Numbered version of poster depicts United States landmarks with individually assigned numbers.
