

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr. | UNINA9910696410403321 |
| Autore | Schuller Reid |
| Titolo | Forest Peak Research Natural Area . Guidebook supplement 33 [[electronic resource] /] / Reid Schuller and Ronald L. Exeter |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa | Portland, OR : , : U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, Forest Service, Pacific Northwest Research Station, , [2007] |
| Descrizione fisica | 23 pages : digital, PDF file |
| Collana | General technical report ; ; PNW-GTR-730 |
| Altri autori (Persone) | ExeterRonald L |
| Soggetti | Research natural areas - Oregon - Forest Peak Research Natural Area Douglas fir - Oregon - Forest Peak Research Natural Area Natural resources management areas - Oregon - Forest Peak Research Natural Area Ecological surveys - Oregon - Forest Peak Research Natural Area Forest Peak Research Natural Area (Or.) |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese |
| Formato | Materiale a stampa |
| Livello bibliografico | Monografia |
| Note generali | Title from title screen (viewed on Mar. 27, 2008). "September 2007." "The PNW Research Station is publishing this guidebook as part of a continuing series of guidebooks on federal research natural areas begun in 1972." |
| Nota di bibliografia | Includes bibliographical references (pages 13-14). |
| Sommario/riassunto | "This guidebook describes the Forest Peak Research Natural Area (RNA), a 62.8-ha (153.3-ac) tract containing a mature Douglas-fir (Pseudotsuga menziesii) forest and a grass bald within the Willamette Valley Foothill Ecoregion. Forest Peak RNA also contains an undisturbed third-order stream reach"-Abstract. |