

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910701106603321
Titolo	Historical collection on Ronald Reagan, intelligence, and the end of the Cold War
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Washington, D.C.?], : [Central Intelligence Agency], [2011?]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (multiple documents)
Soggetti	Intelligence service - United States Cold War History - Sources Influence (Literary, artistic, etc.) Intelligence service Politics and government Politics and government - Forecasting Sources. Soviet Union Politics and government 1985-1991 Forecasting Sources United States Politics and government 1981-1989 Sources Soviet Union United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Collezione
Note generali	Title from title screen (viewed Nov. 18, 2011). "This collection of declassified documents and other material highlights what the CIA provided President Reagan and other top members of his national security team on key issues affecting US-Soviet relations. The collection--made up of intelligence assessments, National Intelligence Estimates, high-level memos, and DCI talking points--consists of over 200 documents, some 60 of which are either being made available to the public for the first time or are being re-released with new material" -[Introd.]

