

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910708694103321
Titolo	Veritas : journal of Army special operations history
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Fort Bragg, N.C.] : , : USASOC History, , 2005-
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource : illustrations
Collana	PB
Disciplina	356
Soggetti	Special forces (Military science) - United States Special forces (Military science) History Periodicals. United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Periodico
Note generali	Some issues have distinctive titles.

2. Record Nr.	UNINA9910495967003321
Autore	Lahav Pnina <1945->
Titolo	Judgment in Jerusalem : Chief Justice Simon Agranat and the Zionist century / / Pnina Lahav [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Berkeley, : University of California Press, c1997
ISBN	0-585-29983-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xvii, 331 p., [9] p. of plates) : ill. ;
Disciplina	347.5694/014/092
Soggetti	Judges - Israel Law - Israel - History Zionism - History - 20th century Judges - Biography - 20th century - Israel Law - History - Israel Zionism - History Law - Africa, Asia, Pacific & Antarctica Law - Non-U.S Law, Politics & Government Biographies. History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 255-311) and index.
Nota di contenuto	From America to Palestine: America, 1906-1930. Palestine, 1930-1948 -- Laying the foundations for a judicial bill of rights: Israel, 1948-1953. In quest of progressive reform. The foundations of progressive reform. Law, morality, and judicial review -- Confronting the Holocaust: Blaming the victims: the Kasztner trial. Blaming the victimizers: the Eichmann trial -- Politics and the rule of law: Who is the guardian of the law: the minister of justice or the attorney general? -- Between past and future: Chief Justice Agranat. Arab representation in the Jewish state. Who is a Jew? the split revisited -- The Yom Kippur War: War and the Agranat commission -- Judging the truth truthfully: Retirement, 1976-1992.
Sommario/riassunto	"Chief Justice Simon Agranat was to Israeli law what David Ben-Gurion was to Israeli politics. A visionary founding father, Agranat had a hand in every important legal and political issue to face Israeli society. Justice in Jerusalem, based on extensive interviews conducted with Agranat, provides a compelling look into Agranat the Supreme Court Justice and Agranat the American immigrant seeking to fulfill his Zionist dream in Palestine. Pnina Lahav skillfully paints a panoramic view of Israeli history and legal culture: the Arab-Israeli conflict, the Holocaust, the symbiosis between religion and the Jewish state, the tension between universal values and the nation state and within Zionism itself." "Born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1906 and educated at the University of Chicago, Agranat brought U.S. progressivism and constitutionalism to Israeli legal soil. On the Supreme Court from the beginning of Israeli statehood, he laid the foundation to the country's bill of rights - this despite the fact that Israel had failed to adopt a written constitution. Focusing on major legal events, Lahav explores the social and political context in which Israeli constitutional law has been crafted." "Lahav details the thinking behind Agranat's 1962 decision to convict the notorious Nazi Adolph Eichmann, as well as his fascinating 1970 dissent in the "Who Is a Jew?" case. We also learn of the tensions that arose as Agranat found himself pulled between the contradictory demands of American jurisprudence and the practical difficulties rooted in the Israeli concern for security." "The first biography of an Israeli judge in English, this book reveals new insights into the relationship between Israeli law and politics, the influence of American law abroad, and the intricacies of national identity and of justice."--Jacket.
