| Sommario/riassunto | "These working charts, prepared by the DDI/Special Research Staff, are drawn from a larger analytical study (in progress) of the Red Guard Movement in Communist China. An attempt has been made to identify the major Red Guard and Revolutionary Rebel groups in each province, autonomous region, and major city, to list the opponents as well as the allies of these groups, to note shifts in these alliances over time, and to provide a brief chronology (where possible) of the varying fortunes of these organizations as of May 1968."--Introduction. |
