Sommario/riassunto	Army University Press presents "France 44: the encirclement at Nancy," a World War II documentary. This 48 minute film focuses on US Army XII Corps' crossing of the Moselle River as part of the Lorraine Campaign in September 1944. The film records historical footage and photographs, virtual terrain, animated maps, digitally-created doctrine graphics, and includes lessons from current U.S. Army doctrine, specifically encirclement operations and tactics as well as passage of lines.
