Note generali	Each volume is available for free download exclusively on the Marine Band website, along with scrolling videos and PDFs of the full scores and parts, and historical and editorial notes about each piece. Each march has been carefully edited and corrected by Lt. Col. Fetting and Music Production Chief Master Sgt. Donald Patterson using some of the earliest known publications and incorporate performance practices employed by the Marine Band that are modeled on those of "The March King" himself. Only six marches from Volume 6 are in the public domain and presently have Marine Band editions. Recordings of non-public domain marches are available for streaming on YouTube.
