1. Record Nr. UNINA9910735998503321 Autore Fischer Michael M. J. <1946-> Titolo At the pivot of East and West: ethnographic, literary, and filmic arts // Michael M. J. Fischer Duke University Press Pubbl/distr/stampa ISBN 1-4780-2446-1 Classificazione SOC002010LIT020000 Disciplina 306.4/70959 Soggetti Anthropology and the arts - Southeast Asia Documentary mass media and the arts - Southeast Asia Arts and society - Southeast Asia Documentary films - Southeast Asia - History and criticism Southeast Asian literature - History and criticism Social change in motion pictures Social change in literature SOCIAL SCIENCE / Anthropology / Cultural & Social LITERARY CRITICISM / Comparative Literature Lingua di pubblicazione Inglese Formato Materiale a stampa Livello bibliografico Monografia Nota di contenuto Oiled hinges: sounds and silences in documentary films of social change -- Filmic stutter, taped countertruths, and musical sutures : knots of recovery -- White ink, family systems, forests of illusion, and aging: knots of passion -- Miniatures: small kindnesses across poisonous knowledges -- Blue widow with green stripes : pivots in widening horizons -- Filmic obsessive repetitions, dissociation, and power relations -- Meritocracy blues, chimeras, and analytic monsters -- Afterword: Portals to the future : MRT stations, universities, and the peopling of technologies -- Exergue: The Bangarra Dance Company and the historical hinge in Australia. "At the Pivot of East and West is the companion volume to Michael M. J. Sommario/riassunto Fischer's Probing Arts and Emergent Futures. In this book, Fischer continues his investigation into artistic practices with a focus on documentary films and novels, and introduces three analytics to do so: pivots, knots, and hinges. For Fischer, "pivots" signals geopolitical spaces, like art markets and commissions, as places to think with; "knots" speak to feminist and intercultural knots in women-authored novels; and "hinges" as a counterpoint to the notion of an event, a persistent slow change that only retrospectively seems dramatic and that remains unfinished. At the Pivot of East and West draws widely from global arts with a focus on art from Singapore and Southeast Asia"

-