Sommario/riassunto	Decorreu nos dias 27, 28 e 29 de Junho de 1996, na vila de Portel, o colóquio intitulado Artes da Fala e subordinado ao tema da oralidade a sul do rio Tejo numa perspectiva antropológica. Organizado pela Câmara Municipal de Portel e pelo Centro de Tradições Populares Portuguesas (Universidade de Lisboa), tendo o professor Manuel Viegas Guerreiro assegurado a respectiva coordenação científica. A realização do evento traduz a congregação de esforços entre uma unidade científica e uma entidade autárquica para que durante as jornadas referidas se criasse um ambiente de estímulos mútuos. Durante as sessões do Colóquio de Portel foram debatidas questões relacionadas com a abordagem da oralidade no Sul de Portugal. Este tema tem um significado duplo. Se, por um lado, fornece matéria para a construção

de memória, por outro, caracteriza realidades presentes. Distinguir estas questões implicou interrogar a noção de cultura popular. Ao fazê-lo, somos obrigados a desfazer dicotomias no nosso modo de pensar.

Sommario/riassunto

The Aarhus Convention on access to information, public participation in decision-making and access to justice in environmental matters has been celebrated as a pioneering international environmental agreement. Given that a quarter-century has passed since Aarhus was opened for signature, now is an opportune moment to revisit it from a fresh perspective. Marking this anniversary, this book explores Aarhus from the vista of the English School of International Relations, an ethically-minded perspective used to gauge the prevalence of state-oriented and human-oriented progress from the Convention's rationales and realities. It firstly considers Aarhus' propagation, investigating the legal, diplomatic and geopolitical contexts enabling its emergence. It secondly investigates Aarhus' germination, with reference to its trinity of procedural rights. Thirdly, the book examines the Convention's growth, in terms of the development of its organisational infrastructure. The chief finding is that Aarhus demonstrates, in environmental contexts, the feasibility and benefit of fostering 'humankind' solidarist progress, rooted in moral cosmopolitanism, within the existing power arrangements of a sovereignty-based pluralism. Pluralist concerns for diversity and international order are found to be a precondition for more ethically ambitious solidarist endeavours. These observations reinforce the logic of solidarisation, an English School innovation that presents sovereignty as (a) being ethically matured by solidarism whilst (b) delimiting solidarism within the threshold of states' tolerance. Dr. Duncan Weaver is Senior Lecturer at University of Suffolk, United Kingdom.
