

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910755086003321
Autore	Sätre Ann-Mari
Titolo	Post-Soviet Women : New Challenges and Ways to Empowerment / / edited by Ann-Mari Sätre, Yulia Gradsanova, Vladislava Vladimirova
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cham : , : Springer International Publishing : , : Imprint : Palgrave Macmillan, , 2023
ISBN	9783031380662 3031380665
Edizione	[1st ed. 2023.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (377 pages)
Collana	Sustainable Development Goals Series, , 2523-3092
Altri autori (Persone)	GradsanovaYulia VladimirovaVladislava
Disciplina	305.40947
Soggetti	Identity politics Europe - Politics and government Sex Russia - History Europe, Eastern - History Soviet Union - History Politics and Gender European Politics Gender Studies Russian, Soviet, and East European History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di contenuto	Chapter 1: Post-Soviet Women: New Challenges and Ways to Empowerment - Introduction -- Part I: Women's positions in the Post- Soviet Societies -- Chapter 2: From defending women's rights in the "whole world" to silence about Russia's predatory war? The (geo)politics of the Eurasian Women's Forums in the context of "traditional values" -- Chapter 3: Debates around domestic violence prevention law in Russia - pro and contra -- Chapter 4: The Private Remains Non- Political: Gender Equality in a Non-Western Context: The Example of Armenia -- Chapter 5: General Trends in Gender Inequality in Post - Soviet Central Asia -- Chapter 6: Women's rights in Central Asian countries in the grip of retraditionalization and neoliberal capitalism -- Chapter 7: Why was there no FEMEN in the Baltic states? Some preliminary observations Matthew Kott -- Part II: Negotiating Women's Roles -- Chapter 8: Being a Woman and Russian National Identity: Discourses and Representations through the Lenses of Russian Conservative and Nationalist Organizations -- Chapter 9: Female parliamentarians in Armenia: from traditional theme-takers to the new theme-givers -- Chapter 10: Valkyries & Madonnas: Constructing femininity during the Russo-Ukrainian War -- Chapter 11: Women cultivating love in the Belarusian countryside -- Part III: Women's Agency, New Movements and Activisms -- Chapter 12: They beat us, we fly.' Indigenous Activism among Women in the Russian North -- Chapter 13: Women's Activism in Ukraine: Artistic Method in Early Civic Documentations of the Ukraine-Russia War -- Chapter 14: Generations of Feminist Translations: Connecting Russophone Academic and Activist Feminist Translation Debates across the 2000s and 2010s -- Chapter 15: Balancing between global trends: what happens with women empowerment in Azerbaijan?. Chapter 16: Women's Responses to the Conservative Wave in Russian Social Policy.

---

Sommario/riassunto

"Inevitably in the shadow of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, the question Russia watchers will ask is where the soldiers' mothers are who took to the streets to protest the Chechen wars. In its analysis of how the conservative turn in politics of the last two decades has undermined the steps made towards gender equality and the empowerment of women in the USSR successor states, this anthology provides some convincing answers. The story is not all gloom. The impressively researched essays, which introduce the reader to a broad range of case studies, also tell of the ways that women are fighting back within the constraints they face by an emboldened patriarchy across the region." --Judith Pallot, Emeritus Professor, University of Oxford, UK This volume explores how different post-Soviet countries have reinterpreted and diverged from the Soviet gender roles and values. It synthesizes results from multiple empirical studies that attend to increasingly conservative features of political governance in the region, particularly the authoritarian regime in Russia. The authors consider diverse enactments of ideologies, policies and practices of gender equality and women's rights in crucial areas, such as legislative institutions, media, and social activism. The volume contributes to understanding post-Soviet societal dynamics relevant to United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 5, which emphasizes gender equality as part of fundamental human rights. Ann-Mari S  tre is Professor in Eurasian Studies and Director of Research at the Institute for Russian and Eurasian Studies, Uppsala University, Sweden. Yulia Gradszkova is Associate Professor of History and Research Coordinator at the Centre for Baltic and East European Studies at S  dert  rn University, Sweden. Vladislava Vladimirova is Associate Professor of Cultural Anthropology at the Institute for Russian and Eurasian Studies and the Department of Cultural Anthropology and Ethnology, Uppsala University, Sweden.

---