

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777473203321
Autore	Adekson Adedayo Oluwakayode
Titolo	The "civil society" problematique : deconstructing civility and southern Nigeria's ethnic radicalization / / Adedayo Oluwakayode Adekson
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York : , : Routledge, , 2004
ISBN	1-135-93655-2 0-415-94785-5 0-203-49377-X 1-280-05242-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xvi, 321 pages)
Collana	African studies
Disciplina	300/.9669
Soggetti	Civil society - Nigeria Nigeria Ethnic relations
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 277-314) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Copyright; Dedication; Contents; CHAPTER I Introduction; CHAPTER II Overview of Study; CHAPTER III Review of Literature; CHAPTER IV Summary of Results Ijaw Youth Council; CHAPTER V Summary of Results Movement for the Actualisation of the Sovereign State of Biafra (MASSOB); CHAPTER VI Summary of Results Oodua Peoples Congress; CHAPTER VII Analysis of Theoretical Anomalies and Regime Policy; CHAPTER VIII Analysis of the Process of Radicalization; CHAPTER IX Implications of Findings and Conclusion; APPENDIX A Questionnaire; APPENDIX B Summary of MOSOP Interview; APPENDIX C Map of Nigeria
Sommario/riassunto	This volume deftly undertakes both a theoretical deconstruction of the concept of civil society, civility and related themes, and an empirical analysis of the radicalisation process in Southern Nigeria.