

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777594403321
Autore	Moreno Julio <1970->
Titolo	Yankee don't go home [[electronic resource]] : Mexican nationalism, American business culture, and the shaping of modern Mexico, 1920-1950 / / Julio Moreno
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chapel Hill, : University of North Carolina Press, c2003
ISBN	979-88-908779-0-1 0-8078-6208-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (335 p.)
Collana	Luther Hartwell Hodges series on business, society, and the state
Disciplina	337.72073/09/041
Soggetti	Industrial policy - Mexico - History - 20th century Capitalism - Mexico - History - 20th century Consumption (Economics) - Mexico - History - 20th century Advertising - Mexico - History - 20th century Nationalism - Mexico - History - 20th century Mexico Foreign relations United States United States Foreign relations Mexico Mexico Politics and government 1910-1946 Mexico Politics and government 1946-1970
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Liberalism, the state, and modern industrial capitalism in postrevolutionary Mexico -- Spreading the American dream : information, technology, and World War II -- Prophets of capitalism : the growth of advertising as a profession and the making of modern Mexico -- Advertising national identity and globalization in the reconstruction of modern Mexico -- J. Walter Thompson and the negotiation of Mexican and American values -- In search of markets, diplomacy, and consumers : Sears as a commercial diplomat in Mexico -- Industrial capitalism, antimodernism, and consumer culture in 1940s Mexico.

