

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777605703321
Autore	Romero Victor C
Titolo	Alienated : immigrant rights, the constitution, and equality in America / / Victor C. Romero
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : New York University Press, 2005
ISBN	0-8147-7674-4 0-8147-0804-8 1-4294-1484-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (277 pages)
Collana	Critical America
Disciplina	342.7308/2
Soggetti	Emigration and immigration law - United States Constitutional law - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 237-256) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Equality for all as a constitutional mandate (noncitizens included!) -- Immigrants and the war on terrorism after 9/11 -- Automatic citizens, automatic deportees : parents, children, and crimes -- Building the floor : preserving the Fourth Amendment rights of undocumented migrants -- Hitting the ceiling : the right to a college education -- A peek into the future? : same-gender partners and immigration law -- The equal noncitizen : alternatives in theory and practice.
Sommario/riassunto	Romero endorses an equality-based reading of the Constitution and advocates a new theoretical and practical approach that protects the individual rights of non-citizens without sacrificing their personhood.