Sommario/riassunto	One of the world's most influential Political Scientists provides an innovative perspective on institutional change and reform in the EU. - ; This book deals with ongoing processes of European cooperation and integration, processes that may have a potential to change the political organization of Europe. Based on ideas from 'the new institutionalism' the book offers a systematic perspective on institutional change and in particular the role of institutions in relation to four central and durable issues in the study of political life. These are: (1) the mediation
