

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777872003321
Autore	Reeves Rene
Titolo	Ladinos with Ladinos, Indians with Indians [[electronic resource] ] : land, labor, and regional ethnic conflict in the making of Guatemala // Rene Reeves
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Stanford, Calif., : Stanford University Press, 2006
ISBN	0-8047-6777-7 1-4294-5678-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (261 p.)
Disciplina	323.1197/4207281
Soggetti	Mayas - Guatemala - Ethnic identity Mayas - Land tenure - Guatemala Mayas - Guatemala - Politics and government Ladino (Latin American people) - Guatemala - Ethnic identity Ladino (Latin American people) - Land tenure - Guatemala Ladino (Latin American people) - Guatemala - Politics and government Land reform - Guatemala - History Ethnic conflict - Guatemala - History Social problems - Guatemala - History Guatemala Ethnic relations Guatemala Social conditions Guatemala Politics and government
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [195]-244) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Re-writing Guatemala's nineteenth century -- The transformation of Mam Quezaltenango from culaha to independence -- Disputing property : national politics and local ethnic conflict in the formation of a Guatemalan coffee zone -- Debt, labor coercion, and the expansion of commercial agriculture -- Intoxicating politics : gender, ethnicity and alcohol in the transition to liberal rule -- From Ladino state to Ladino nation : the malformation of Guatemalan national identity -- Popular insurrection, liberal reform, and nation-state formation : final reflections on Guatemala's nineteenth century.

Sommario/riassunto

In the late 1830's, an uprising of mestizos and Maya destroyed Guatemala's Liberal government. Liberal partisans were unable to retake the state until 1871. In contrast to the late 1830's, they met only sporadic resistance. This work confronts this paradox of Guatemala's nineteenth century by focusing on the rural folk of the western highlands.

---