

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777877003321
Autore	Murray Joseph A. <1935->
Titolo	Alexander Hamilton [[electronic resource]] : America's forgotten founder // Joseph A. Murray
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Algora Pub., 2007
ISBN	9786611398224 1-281-39822-5 0-87586-502-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (264 p.)
Disciplina	973.4092 B
Soggetti	Statesmen - United States United States Politics and government 1783-1809
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Preface; Chapter 1. Hamilton's Youth; Chapter 2. Gaining Maturity in War; Chapter 3. Valley Forge to Yorktown; Chapter 4. Creating the New Government; Chapter 5. Fulfilling the Potential; Chapter 6. Challenges Foreign and Domestic; Chapter 7. The French Revolution in America; Chapter 8. Foreign Diplomacy; Chapter 9. The Final Years; Epilogue; Acknowledgements; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Alexander Hamilton: America's Forgotten Founder describes the character and achievements of a man who was instrumental in casting the form of our government and especially its strong financial structure. His financial innovations renewed the public credit when war debts threatened to swamp the fledgling economy, provided a stable currency system and established a federal revenue system. Hamilton's involvement in the foreign affairs of the new republic assured its unity, sovereignty and rapid economic growth. Born in the West Indies, Alexander Hamilton migrated to America when he was fifteen ye