

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910777959403321
Autore	Yow John
Titolo	The armchair birder [[electronic resource] ] : discovering the secret lives of familiar birds // by John Yow
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chapel Hill, : University of North Carolina Press, 2009
ISBN	979-88-908846-3-3 0-8078-8878-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (260 p.)
Disciplina	598.0973
Soggetti	Birds Bird watching
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Introduction; A Note on the Sources; Spring; Summer; Autumn; Winter; Afterword; Sources; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Bird lovers, take heart! While the birding literature is filled with tales of expert observers spotting rare species in exotic locales, John Yow's The Armchair Birder reminds us that the most fascinating birds can be the ones perched right outside our windows. In thirty-five engaging, humorous, and even irreverent essays, Yow reveals the fascinating lives of birds you probably already recognize and naturally want to know more about--because they're the ones you see nearly every day. Following the seasons of the year, Yow covers forty-two species, from the Carolina wren that ring