

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910778064803321
Autore	Amkraut Brian <1969->
Titolo	Between home and homeland [[electronic resource]] : youth aliyah from Nazi Germany // Brian Amkraut
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, : University of Alabama Press, c2006
ISBN	0-8173-8162-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (247 p.)
Collana	Judaic studies series
Disciplina	940.53/183508350943
Soggetti	Jews - Germany - Migrations Jewish children in the Holocaust Zionism - Germany - History - 20th century Jews - Germany - Politics and government Germany Emigration and immigration History 20th century Palestine Emigration and immigration History 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [207]-226) and index.
Nota di contenuto	1932 : the decisive year -- Spreading the word -- Emigration or welfare movement? -- After the pogrom -- Conflicts and resolutions.
Sommario/riassunto	The emigration of Jewish teenagers to Palestine to escape Hitler's Germany. While the future darkened for the Jews of Germany as Hitler and his followers assumed and consolidated power in Germany, a number of efforts, at first random, uncoordinated, and often at cross-purposes with one another, were set underway both within and without German cities to facilitate the departure of Jews. Among them was the organization, "Youth Aliyah" (aliyah refers to the Zionist goal of a homecoming for Jews in historic Israel). To this day Youth Aliyah is considered by Israelis as