

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910778821803321
Autore	Bennett Charles E. <1910-2003.>
Titolo	Laudonniere & Fort Caroline [[electronic resource] ] : history and documents / / Charles E. Bennett
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, : University of Alabama Press, c2001
ISBN	0-8173-8338-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (208 p.)
Disciplina	975.9/01
Soggetti	French - Florida - History - 16th century Fortification - Florida - Jacksonville Region - History - 16th century Timucua Indians - Florida - Jacksonville Region - History - 16th century Spaniards - Florida - History - 16th century Florida History Huguenot colony, 1562-1565 Florida History Huguenot colony, 1562-1565 Sources Fort Caroline National Memorial (Jacksonville, Fla.)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Originally published: Gainesville : University of Florida Press, 1964. "New foreword by Jerald T. Milanich"--Cover.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	pt. 1. The history -- pt. 2. The documents.
Sommario/riassunto	This classic historical resource remains the most complete work on the establishment of Fort Caroline, which heralded the start of permanent settlement by Europeans in North America. America's history was shaped in part by the clash of cultures that took place in the southeastern United States in the 1560's. Indians, French, and Spaniards vied to profit from European attempts to colonize the land Juan Ponce de Leon had named La Florida. Rene de Goulaine de Laudonniere founded a French Huguenot settlement on the St. Johns River near present-day Jackson