

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910778957703321
Autore	Yates Douglas A (Douglas Andrew), <1964->
Titolo	The scramble for African oil [[electronic resource] ] : oppression, corruption and war for control of Africa's natural resources / / Douglas A. Yates
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Pluto Press, 2012
ISBN	1-84964-629-5 1-84964-628-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (272 p.)
Collana	New politics, progressive policy
Disciplina	338.2728096
Soggetti	Petroleum industry and trade - Africa Africa
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	pt. 1. Power from above -- pt. 2. Power from below.
Sommario/riassunto	Africa is often seen as a place to be pitied or feared as an area of instability. This book challenges these complacent assumptions, showing how our demand for oil contributes to the chronic problems plaguing the continent. Douglas A. Yates shows how the 'scramble' by the great powers for African oil has fed corruption and undermined democracy. Yates documents how Africans have refused to remain passive in the face of such developments, forming movements to challenge this new attempt at domination. This book is an urgent challenge to our understanding of Africa, raising questions about the consequences of our reliance on foreign resources. It will be vital reading for all those studying development and global political economy.