

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910779126203321
Autore	Hagan John <1946->
Titolo	Crime and disrepute [[electronic resource] /] / John Hagen
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Thousand Oaks, [Calif.] ; ; London, : Pine Forge, c1994
ISBN	1-4522-3230-X 1-4522-6483-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xiv, 202 p.) : ill
Collana	Sociology for a new century
Disciplina	364
Soggetti	Criminology Deviant behavior Crime Crime - United States Criminal justice, Administration of - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; About the Author; Foreword; Prologue; Chapter 1 - The Changing Face of Crime; An Ambivalent Century of Crime; Defining the Changeable Nature of Crime; Crime on a Continuum; Counting Crime and the Distribution of Disrepute; Crime Changes; Chapter 2 - Classical Theories of Crime and Disrepute; The Structural Functionalist Theories; CASE STUDY Structural Functionalist Theory: Organized Vice and Ethnicity; The Symbolic Interactionist Theories; CASE STUDY Symbolic Interactionist Theory: The Vocational Meaning of Crime; Conflict Theories of Crime and Disrepute CASE STUDY Conflict Theory: Ghetto Revolts and the Courts The Classical Theories; Chapter 3 - A New Sociology of Crime and Disrepute; Crime, Change, and the Classical Theories; Perspectives on Inequality; Equality, Efficiency, and Individualism; Social and Cultural Capital; Capital Disinvestment Processes; CASE STUDY An Example: The Results of Capital Disinvestment in North Kenwood; The New Ethnographies of Poverty and Crime; The New Quantitative Studies of Crime, Class, and Community; Capital Disinvestment and Embeddedness in the Criminal Economy of Drugs The New Sociology of Crime, Inequality, and Disrepute Chapter 4 -

White-Collar Crime in a Global Economy; Class, Crime, and the Corporations; CASE STUDY Health Effects of Asbestos in a Canadian Province; CASE STUDY Corporate Homicide and the Ford Motor Company; White-Collar Crime and the Social Organization of Work; CASE STUDY The Fallible Foundations of Trust; CASE STUDY Banking beyond Boundaries and the BCCI Affair; CASE STUDY Explaining ""Watergate""; White-Collar Crime and Legal Sanctions; CASE STUDY The Prosecution and Sentencing of Two Wall Street Criminals; High Crimes and Misdemeanors

Chapter 5 - Criminal Injustice in America
Introduction; The Multiple Meanings of Criminal Justice; The Social Organization of Criminal Justice; Reactive and Proactive Policing; Policing Minority Communities; Prosecuting Minority Crime; The Prosecutorial Politics of Drug Law Enforcement; CASE STUDY The Vilification of a Black Big Dealer; The New Penology and the Expanded Use of Imprisonment; CASE STUDY Comparing Imprisonment in the United States and Germany; Doing Justice by Reallocating Resources; Doing Justice by Reallocating Resources; Epilogue; Bibliography; Glossary/Index

---

Sommario/riassunto

In the context of the unique crime problems of the US, John Hagan advances a new sociology of crime and disrepute that focuses on the criminal costs of social inequality. He connects the diversion of funding away from distressed communities to increased violence and lack of social mobility for disadvantaged groups which in turn result in the development of 'deviance service centers' and 'ethnic vice industries'.

---