

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910779686603321
Autore	Scitovsky Tibor
Titolo	Papers on Welfare and Growth [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Hoboken, : Taylor and Francis, 2013 London : , : Routledge, , 2003
ISBN	0-203-70858-X 1-299-47939-1 1-135-03302-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (271 p.)
Collana	Routledge library editions. Economics. Welfare economics and economic policy ; ; 8
Disciplina	330.1
Soggetti	Business & Economics Economic Theory
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Front Cover; Papers on Welfare and Growth; Copyright Page; Preface; Contents; A: Economic Growth and Related Problems; 1. A Study of Interest and Capital; 2. Capital Accumulation, Employment and Price Rigidity; 3. Two Concepts of External Economies; 4. Monopoly and Competition in Europe and America; 5. Growth-Balanced or Unbalanced?; 6. International Trade and Economic Integration as Means of Overcoming the Disadvantages of a Small Nation; B: Theoretical Welfare Economics; 7. A Note on Welfare Propositions in Economics; 8. A Reconsideration of the Theory of Tariffs 9. A Note on Profit Maximization and its Implications 10. The State of Welfare Economics; C: Practical Welfare Economics; 11. Some Consequences of the Habit of Judging Quality by Price; 12. Ignorance as a Source of Oligopoly Power; 13. What Price Economic Progress?; 14. A Critique of Present and Proposed Standards; 15. On the Principle of Consumers' Sovereignty; 16. Equity; 17. International Payments in Laputa; Index
Sommario/riassunto	The volume is divided into three parts:A: Economic Growth and Related Problems (covering international trade and economic integration, including a comparative study between Europe and America)B:

Theoretical Welfare Economics (welfare propositions in economics, profit maximization and its implications and the Theory of Tariffs)C:
Practical Welfare Economics (the price of economic progress, equity and international payments).
