Part I. Forum documentation -- Part II. Oral history -- Part III. Nota di contenuto Appendix. The first part of the book contains documentation of a groundbreaking Sommario/riassunto exhibition held in 2007 on student activities and societal engagements during post-war Singapore 1945-1965 and transcripts of forums held in conjunction with it. The second half centres on oral history accounts of mostly former Chinese school students who shared about their social, cultural and political activities in complex but exciting times. Education-at-large broadens our understanding of Singapore's educational history in the transitional period between the end of the Second World War and the country's independence;
