

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910780601203321
Autore	Gilbert Neil <1940->
Titolo	Transformation of the welfare state [[electronic resource]] : the silent surrender of public responsibility / / Neil Gilbert
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Oxford ; ; New York, : Oxford University Press, 2002
ISBN	0-19-517657-X 1-280-48149-8 9786610481491 0-19-803224-2 1-60256-908-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (225 p.)
Disciplina	330.12/6
Soggetti	Welfare state Social policy Capitalism Means tests Privatization
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents -- Foreword -- Introduction -- Part I: Currents of Change -- 1. New Course or Marginal Adjustment? -- 2. Toward the Enabling State -- Part II: Lines of Convergence -- 3. Protection to Inclusion: Promoting Work -- 4. State to Market: Subsidizing Private Activity -- 5. Universal to Selective: Targeting Benefits -- 6. Citizenship to Membership: Restoring Solidarity? -- Part III: Social Implications -- 7. The Triumph of Capitalism-and Its Discontents -- Index.
Sommario/riassunto	In this work, Neil Gilbert argues that the changes in welfare policy we are witnessing in Europe and the US are not marginal adjustments to the borders of the welfare state, but represent a fundamental shift in the philosophy of social protection.