

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910780835903321
Autore	Jones Howard <1940->
Titolo	Blue and gray diplomacy [[electronic resource]] : a history of Union and Confederate foreign relations // Howard Jones
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Chapel Hill, : University of North Carolina Press, c2010
ISBN	1-4696-0449-3 0-8078-9857-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (433 p.)
Collana	Littlefield history of the Civil War era
Disciplina	973.7/2
Soggetti	International relations United States Foreign relations 1861-1865 Confederate States of America Foreign relations United States Foreign relations Great Britain Great Britain Foreign relations United States United States Foreign relations France France Foreign relations United States Confederate States of America Foreign relations Great Britain Great Britain Foreign relations Confederate States of America Confederate States of America Foreign relations France France Foreign relations Confederate States of America
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Prologue -- Republic in peril -- British neutrality on trial -- The Trent and Confederate independence -- Road to recognition -- Union and Confederacy at bay -- The paradox of intervention -- Antietam and emancipation -- Union-Confederate crisis over intervention -- Requiem for Napoleon--and intervention -- Epilogue.
Sommario/riassunto	In this examination of Union and Confederate foreign relations during the Civil War from both European and American perspectives, Howard Jones demonstrates that the consequences of the conflict between North and South reached far beyond American soil. Jones explores a number of themes, including the international economic and political dimensions of the war, the North's attempts to block the South from winning foreign recognition as a nation, Napoleon III's meddling in the war and his attempt to restore French power in the New World, and the inability of Europeans to understand the in
