Record Nr. UNINA9910780960203321 Autore Silberberg Daniel Doen <1947-> Titolo Wonderland: the Zen of Alice / / Daniel Doen Silberberg Pubbl/distr/stampa Berkeley, CA,: Parallax Press, 2009 ISBN 1-935209-03-5 Descrizione fisica 1 online resource (xiv, 103 pages) Altri autori (Persone) CarrollLewis <1832-1898.> Disciplina 294.3927 Soggetti Zen Buddhism Lingua di pubblicazione Inglese Formato Materiale a stampa Livello bibliografico Monografia Note generali Description based upon print version of record. Nota di bibliografia Includes bibliographical references. Nota di contenuto Praise; Title Page; Foreword; Epigraph; Introduction; One - DOWN IN A HOLE; Two - NEZ; Three - CASTING OFF; Four - GO HOME TO YOUR MOTHER: Five - BEER PONG: Six - DON'T PLAY THE BUTTER NOTES: Seven - THE WORLD'S LARGEST KALEIDOSCOPE; Eight - TWO FRIES SHORT OF A HAPPY MEAL; ABOUT THE AUTHOR; Copyright Page Sommario/riassunto An exceptionally original riff on Alice in Wonderland, Daniel Silberberg's Wonderland uses Lewis Carroll's classic story as a jumpingoff point to convey the Zen concept of ?One Mind". Using a lively mix of tone, quotation, and levels of discourse, he references everything from Timeless Spring and the Diamond Sutra to Kill Bill and ketchup, creating a unique contribution to contemporary American Zen that honors its historic roots while striking out into fresh areas. With stories

Silberberg

from his own life as well as from the larger cultural swirl around him,