

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910780960803321
Autore	Hayes James <1930->
Titolo	The great difference [[electronic resource]] : Hong Kong's New Territories and its people, 1898-2004 / / James Hayes
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Hong Kong, : Hong Kong University Press [London, : Eurospan, distributor], 2006
ISBN	1-282-70949-6 9786612709494 988-8052-90-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (333 p.)
Disciplina	950 951.2504
Soggetti	New Territories (China) History Hong Kong (China) History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Preface; Abbreviations and Romanization; Introduction; 1 - The Leased Territory in 1898; 2 - The Existing British Crown Colony and ""the Great Difference""; 3 - Survey, Land Court, Registration, and Customary Law; 4 - ""Give and Take"" in the New Territory up to 1941; 5 - New Territories People and the Japanese Occupation 1941-1945; 6 - An End to Subsistence Farming: Opening the Way for Urban Development and Country Parks; 7 - Village Removals for Water Schemes 1923-1974: Resitings and Compensation 8 - Village Removals for New Town Development 1960 Onward: Resitings and New Modes of Compensation 9 - The Rural Contribution to Community Building in the New Towns, and Its Background; 10 - Village Communities in Change; 11 - Identities: Staying Chinese during the Lease; 12 - Convergence and Divergence: A Deteriorating Relationship; Notes; Bibliography; Glossary; Index
Sommario/riassunto	The study covers the whole period of the Lease, with all its crowded events and dramatic changes, as they affected the native inhabitants and their relationship with the government and, over time, the many times larger new urban population.

