

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910781009303321
Autore	Cox Richard J
Titolo	The demise of the library school [[electronic resource] ] : personal reflections on professional education in the modern corporate university // by Richard J. Cox
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Duluth, MN, : Library Juice Press, 2010
ISBN	1-936117-45-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (357 p.)
Disciplina	020.7
Soggetti	Library education Library schools - Curricula Archives - Study and teaching (Higher) Information science - Study and teaching Professional education
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Setting the scene -- Reading, writing, and the old library school -- Personal interlude : loving books, without apology -- Spectacle of the corporate university -- Rethinking the traditional school (and values) -- Archival studies : a case study -- Looking for our way (reading and writing) in professional schools -- Teaching in the professional school in the changing university.
Sommario/riassunto	"A series of meditations on critical themes relating to the education of librarians, archivists, and other information professionals, playing off of other commentators analyzing the nature of higher education and its problems and aims"--Provided by publisher.