

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910781094103321
Titolo	The sands of time [[electronic resource]] : children's literature : culture, politics & identity : papers and presentations from conference 2008 // edited by Jenny Plastow & Margot Hillel
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Hatfield, Hertfordshire, : University of Hertfordshire Press, 2010
ISBN	1-905313-91-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (193 p.)
Collana	Children's literature annual ; ; no. 3
Altri autori (Persone)	PlastowJenny HillelMargot
Disciplina	809.89282
Soggetti	Children's literature - History and criticism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	pt. 1. Culture -- pt. 2. Politics -- pt. 3. Identity.
Sommario/riassunto	Written by key scholars and authors, this collection of essays examines contemporary and historical children's literature. From a wry look at girls' school stories from the last century to a thought-provoking analysis of contemporary, illustrated children's books from Australia, this volume offers a timely and critical examination of the overt and subtle ways in which children's literature reflects and responds to the political environment from which it springs. Wide-ranging in its approach and themes, this account also discusses the interplay between culture a