

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910781251103321
Autore	Davis Dick <1945->
Titolo	Belonging [[electronic resource]] : poems / / Dick Davis
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Athens, : Swallow Press/Ohio University Press, c2002
ISBN	0-8040-4005-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (65 p.)
Disciplina	821/.914
Soggetti	Iran Poetry
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Shadows; A Monorhyme for the Shower; Haydn and Hokusai; Night Thoughts; Iran Twenty Years Ago; To the Persian Poets; Political Asylum; In History; Gongora; A Petrarchan Sonnet; Casanova; Dido; In the Restaurant; Duchy and Shinks; West South West; Teresia Sherley; What; A World Dies . . .; Sweet Pleasure . . .; Hibernation; No Going Back; Secrets; Out of Time; Aubade; A Se Stesso; "Live Happily"; Guides for the Soul; Games; Victorian; Partners; Just a Small One, As You Insist; Desire; Farewell to the Mentors; A Bit of Paternity; Kipling's Kim, Thirty Years On; New at It; Deja Lu; Growing Up OldSmall Talk; Just So; Notes
Sommario/riassunto	There are worlds within our own in which even the smallest victories are hard won, the tender moment is almost unbearable, and the understated rings like a bell. Belonging, a new collection by British poet Dick Davis, is an extended visit to these worlds. Deepened by his dry wit and the formal rigor of his verse, the poems of Belonging negotiate their way among personal and political divides-generations in a family, man and woman, and the tentative present and our inherited pasts. But behind much of the writing there is also a desire for a kind of idealized belonging-to a clerisy of civiliz