

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910781767003321
Titolo	Industrial policy for national champions // edited by Oliver Falck, Christian Gollier, and Ludger Woessmann
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Cambridge, Mass., : MIT Press, ©2011
ISBN	1-283-25875-7 9786613258755 0-262-29865-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (219 p.)
Collana	CESifo seminar series
Altri autori (Persone)	FalckOliver GollierChristian WoessmannLudger
Disciplina	338.94
Soggetti	Industrial policy - European Union countries Business and politics - European Union countries Competition, Unfair - Europe Europe Economic integration
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Arguments for and against policies to promote national champions / Oliver Falck, Christian Gollier, and Ludger Woessmann -- Some thoughts on industrial policy and growth / Philippe Aghion -- National champions and economic growth / Kathy Fogel, Randall Morck, and Bernard Yeung -- Subsidizing national champions : an evolutionary perspective / Cecile Aubert, Oliver Falck, and Stephan Hebllich -- Mergers and national champions / Massimo Motta and Michele Ruta -- The hidden costs of political sponsorship of industrial firms / Paul Seabright -- National champions under credit rationing / Christian Gollier and Bruno Jullien -- Market integration with regulated national champions : winners, losers, and cooperation / Sara Biancini -- Economic patriotism, foreign takeovers, and national champions : the Bertrand case / Jens Suedekum.
Sommario/riassunto	In this text prominent economists present the pros and cons of government support for national champions of industry over political governance.

