

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910781963803321
Autore	Saunders Richard L. <1963->
Titolo	Never been rich [[electronic resource]] : the life and work of a southern ruralist writer, Harry Harrison Kroll // Richard L. Saunders
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Knoxville, : University of Tennessee Press, c2011
ISBN	1-283-31019-8 9786613310194 1-57233-838-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (265 p.)
Disciplina	813/.54 B
Soggetti	Authors, American - 20th century American literature - Appalachian Region - History and criticism Appalachian Region Intellectual life
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	A poor-man's boy, 1888-1920 -- More than one kind of education, 1921-1935 -- College professor, American novelist, 1936-1957 -- Professor emeritus, 1958-1967 -- Harry Kroll as litterateur: lessons.
Sommario/riassunto	Known for his sometimes-gritty naturalism and use of Appalachian dialect, Harry Harrison Kroll (1888-1967) was a remarkably prolific Tennessee novelist and short-story writer during the middle decades of the twentieth century. His career spanned two of the three major shifts in publishing during the twentieth century: the heyday and decline of the fiction magazine market during the late 1920's, and the rise of nonfiction and solidification of paperback marketing during the 1950's. Never Been Rich explores details of Kroll's humble, rural youth, his long delayed education