Sommario/riassunto	'The imaginative therapies described in this book offer a welcome counter-balance to medical trends dominating the current practice of children's therapy. Inspired practitioners experienced in listening to buried, altered or muted voices of traumatized children invite us into their consulting rooms to witness the unique ways the soul speaks in images, movement and sound.' - Nor Hall, Ph.D. psychotherapist, theater artist and author of The Moon & the Virgin and Those Women.

'This book is an offering to all our senses enabling us to delve into the powerful sphere of the implicit, making tangibl
