

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910782665303321
Autore	Wilkins Karin Gwinn <1962->
Titolo	Home/land/security [[electronic resource] ] : what we learn about Arab communities from action-adventure films // Karin Gwinn Wilkins
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, MD, : Lexington Books, c2009
ISBN	1-282-49386-8 9786612493867 0-7391-3214-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (112 p.)
Disciplina	791.43/652927
Soggetti	Arabs in motion pictures Action and adventure films - United States - History and criticism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 93-99) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Home/Land/Security; Contents; Acknowledgments; Chapter 01: Introduction; Chapter 02: Fearing the "Other" in the Name of Security; Chapter 03: Mapping Land and Fear in Global Space; Chapter 04: Conquering Evil in Defense of Home; Chapter 05: Re-visioning Arab Communities in U.S. Popular Culture; Notes; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Karin Gwinn Wilkins interviews focus groups composed of a diverse cross-section of Americans and analyzes their interpretations of action-adventure film villains of Middle Eastern descent. Wilkins addresses the neglected empirical link between documented media stereotypes of Arab communities and the lived consequences of these portrayals, both in terms of discriminatory practices and generalizations.