

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910782913503321
Autore	Bowen Wayne H. <1968->
Titolo	Spaniards and Nazi Germany : collaboration in the new order // Wayne H. Bowen
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Columbia, Mo : , : University of Missouri Press, , 2000 ©2000
ISBN	0-8262-6282-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xii, 250 pages)
Disciplina	327.46043
Soggetti	World War, 1939-1945 Fascism Germany Foreign relations Spain Spain Foreign relations Germany Germany Foreign relations 1933-1945 Spain Foreign relations 1939-1975
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 231-242) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction From second republic to Civil War, 1933-1939 From peace to war, April 1939-April 1940 The Axis temptation, May 1940-May 1941 Enlisting in the new order, June 1941-January 1943 Spanish disengagement from the new order, February 1943-July 1944 The last defenders of the new order, August 1944-May 1945 Conclusion
Sommario/riassunto	Using recently declassified documents from Spain and the United States, personal interviews, and unpublished and published Spanish, German, British, and U.S. records, Spaniards and Nazi Germany makes a significant contribution to the understanding of Hispano-German relations during the 1930s and 1940s. This study shows that Naziphiles within the Spanish Falange, Spain's Fascist party, made a concerted effort to bring Spain into World War II, and that only the indecisiveness of dictator Francisco Franco and diplomatic mistakes by the Nazis prevented them from succeeding.