

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910783352303321
Autore	Henry Vincent E. <1957->
Titolo	Death work : police, trauma, and the psychology of survival / / Vincent E. Henry
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, New York : , : Oxford University Press, , 2004 ©2004
ISBN	0-19-028905-8 0-19-026151-X 1-280-50275-4 0-19-803584-5 1-60256-896-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (415 p.)
Disciplina	363.2/2/019
Soggetti	Police psychology Death
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Foreword; Contents; Introduction: The Death and Policing Nexus; 1. Death Work: The General Context; 2. Police Survivors of Death Encounters: Theoretical Perspective and Strategy of Inquiry; 3. "Becoming a Cop": Basic Social and Psychological Processes; 4. The Rookie's Experience: Introduction to Death; 5. Patrol Sergeants: Routinization of the Death Encounter; 6. Crime Scene Detectives: "Technicizing" the Death Encounter; 7. Homicide Detectives: Emotional Reactions to Violent Death; 8. Police Survivors: Genuine Threats to the Sense of Immortality; 9. Reflections and Observations Epilogue: September 11, 2001Notes; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Through extensive field observation and structured interviews with NYPD officers, Henry reveals patterns of psychological transformation and social consequences of police encounters with death.