

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910783428603321
Autore	Borowitz Eugene B
Titolo	The Jewish moral virtues // Eugene B. Borowitz, Frances Weinman Schwartz
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Philadelphia : , : Jewish Publication Society, , 1999
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xxii, 360 pages)
Altri autori (Persone)	SchwartzFrances Weinman
Disciplina	296.3/6
Soggetti	Jewish ethics Jewish way of life Ethics in rabbinical literature Rabbinical literature - History and criticism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 339-348) and index.
Nota di contenuto	""Contents""; ""Acknowledgments""; ""Sources and Credits""; ""Abbreviations""; ""PART I - The Musar Way to ""Menschhood""""; ""PART II - Living Responsibly""; ""PART III - Making a Contribution""; ""PART IV - Refining the Inner Person""; ""PART V - Facing the World""; ""PART VI - Achieving Our Musar Goals""; ""PART VII - Staying Worthy""; ""PART VIII - Our Guide, Our Ground, Our Goal""; ""Epilogue - Post-Modern Musar""; ""Glossary""; ""Bibliography""; ""Index""
Sommario/riassunto	This book, by Eugene B. Borowitz and Frances Weinman Schwartz, is about philosophical meditations on ethics of contemporary life, and is structured on the twenty-four virtues of Yehiel ben Yekutiel which include compassion, trustworthiness, and generosity.