| Sommario/riassunto      | In 1688, Britain was successfully invaded, its army and navy unable toprevent the overthrow of the government. 1815, Britain was thestrongest power in the world with the most successful navy and thelargest empire. Britain had not only played a prominent role in thedefeat of Napoleonic France, but had also established itself as asignificant power in South Asia and was unsurpassed in her globalreach. Her military strength was related to, and based on, one of thebest systems of public finance in the world and held a strong tradeposition. This illustrated text assesses the military aspects |
