

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910784173703321
Autore	Berg Grethe <1947->
Titolo	The importance of food and mealtimes in dementia care [[electronic resource]] : the table is set / / Grethe Berg ; foreword by Aase-Marit Nyga rd
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Jessica Kingsley, 2006
ISBN	1-280-73812-X 9786610738120 1-84642-516-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (90 p.)
Disciplina	362.19683
Soggetti	Dementia - Patients - Institutional care Dinners and dining - Psychological aspects Dinners and dining - Social aspects Food - Social aspects Nursing homes - Administration
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; The Importance of Food and Mealtimes in Dementia Care: The Table is Set; Contents; FOREWORD by Aase-Marit Nygard; PREFACE; INTRODUCTION; 1 About Mealtimes and Being Together; Fellowship and belonging; Food is more than just nutrition; Mealtimes as the priority event in the daily routine; 2 Dementia; Loss of function and practical consequences for persons with a dementia illness; Deteriorating memory and loss of ability to learn; Loss of orientation skills; Intellectual decline; Loss of linguistic ability - aphasia; Loss of the ability to interpret - agnosia Impaired ability to do practical tasks - apraxia Deterioration in attention; Psychological changes; Loss of judgement and changed behaviour; Caring needs; Treatment for people with dementia; 3 Mealtimes Used as a Purposeful Activity; Repetition and recognition; Ability to manage; Improved orientation in time, personal identity, place and situation; Stimulating the senses; Social stimulation, well-being and confidence; Observation and assessment of functioning skills; Inability to complete practical tasks; Memory; Orientation; Initiative; Concentration and attentiveness

Social skills and changed behaviour
Food, mealtimes and having a meal in institutional care; Medication in food; 4The Relationship between Ideals and Practical Reality; Building design; Inter-disciplinary collaboration; Prioritizing tasks; Organizing staff and residents; Staff participation and conduct at mealtimes; Knowledge, attitude and motivation; CONCLUSION; REFERENCES

Sommario/riassunto

Using her experience of working with older people with dementia, Grethe Berg explains how mealtimes can be used as opportunities for meaningful interaction, socialising and reminiscing. This book provides much-needed help and practical strategies for care managers and carers to reclaim mealtimes as positive experiences for people with dementia.
