| Sommario/riassunto      | In this revolutionary new book, expert liaison Natalie Reif Ziarnik draws on well-known children's literature and defining moments in history to expose the untapped potential that exists between schools and libraries. Using classic storytelling techniques, such as "A Day in the Life" vignettes illustrating school and public library interaction, she points out both the challenges and rewards of cooperation. Filled with practical and ready-to-use tips, this handbook includes:. Sample "materials request" list for classroom teachers. "Homework alert" ideas for students, teachers, and librari |
