1.	Record Nr.	UNINA9910784683203321
	Titolo	Citizenship and higher education [[electronic resource]] : the role of universities in communities and society / / edited by James Arthur with Karen E. Bohlin
	Pubbl/distr/stampa	London ; ; New York, : RoutledgeFalmer, 2005
	ISBN	1-134-31216-4 1-280-23625-6 9786610236251 0-203-41593-0
	Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (166 p.)
	Collana	Key issues in higher education series
	Altri autori (Persone)	ArthurJames <1957-> BohlinKaren E
	Disciplina	306.43/2
	Soggetti	Education, Higher - Social aspects Education, Higher - Aims and objectives Education - Philosophy
	Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
	Formato	Materiale a stampa
	Livello bibliografico	Monografia
	Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
	Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. [171]-188) and index.
	Nota di contenuto	Introduction / James Arthur -- Student character in the British university / James Arthur -- Universities of character? / Charles L. Glenn -- Community, service learning and higher education in the UK / John Annette -- Searching for a moral north star during the college years / Arthur Schwartz -- Citizenship and higher education in the UK / John Annette and Terence McLaughlin -- Character education at the university: a worthy purpose / Karen E. Bohlin -- The character of higher education / Dennis Hayes -- Developing citizenship through international exchanges / Ian Davies, Mark Evans, Peter Cunningham, Gunilla Fredriksson, Graham Pike, Hanns-Fred Rathenow, Alan Sears, Felicitas Tesch and Pam Whitty -- Textual apologism or dissent? Ethical dilemmas for academics in managerialist times / Martin Thrupp.
	Sommario/riassunto	This comparative text considers models of higher education in the UK and the US, and individuals' perceptions about the role of university in society.