

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910784689103321
Autore	Staden Hans <ca. 1525-ca. 1576., >
Titolo	Hans Staden : the true history of his captivity : 1557 / / Hans Staden ; translated and edited by Malcolm Letts, with an introduction and notes
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London ; ; New York : , : RoutledgeCurzon, , 2005
ISBN	1-134-28542-6 1-134-28543-4 1-280-17813-2 9786610178131 0-203-34003-5
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (215 p.)
Collana	The Broadway travellers ; ; 26
Altri autori (Persone)	LettsMalcolm Henry Ikin <1882->
Disciplina	910.92 918.10432092
Soggetti	Indians of South America - Brazil Tupinamba Indians Brazil Description and travel America Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages [161]-175) and index.
Nota di contenuto	BOOK COVER; HALF-TITLE; TITLE; COPYRIGHT; PREFACE; CONTENTS; LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS; INTRODUCTION; NOTE TO INTRODUCTION; HANS STADEN'S INTRODUCTION; DR. DRYANDER'S INTRODUCTION; THE CONTENTS OF THIS BOOK; PART ONE; PART TWO; NOTES; INDEX
Sommario/riassunto	'The Broadway Travellers contains few more exciting stories than that of Staden.' Sunday Times'The present translation of his adventures among the Brazilian cannibals, with which the gruesome original woodcuts are included, now make Staden's story available to a larger public...'New StatesmanThe first part of the book is a straightforward account of the author's personal experiences. The second part is a detailed treatise on the customs of the Tupinamba, their polity, trade, religion, manufactures and warlike undertakings, and of the flora and fauna of the country. In