

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910784917103321
Autore	Parker T. H. L (Thomas Henry Louis)
Titolo	Calvin [[electronic resource]] : an introduction to his thought // T.H.L. Parker
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London ; ; New York, : Continuum, 2002, c1995
ISBN	1-282-71022-2 9786612710223 1-4411-3105-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (177 p.)
Collana	Outstanding Christian Thinkers
Disciplina	230.42092
Soggetti	Theology, Doctrinal - History - 16th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Preface; Introduction; 1 Calvin's writings; 2 The contemporary scene; 3 The interpretation of the Institutio; PART ONE: The knowledge of God the Creator; PART TWO: The knowledge of God the Redeemer in Christ; PART THREE: The way we receive Christ's grace; PART FOUR: Outward means; Index
Sommario/riassunto	John Calvin (1509-64) influence reaches from the Reformation to Karl Barth and beyond. Outstanding as biblical scholar, preacher and practical Church reformer, Calvin intended all his work to serve the Word of God. Although couched in 16th century terms, his theology drew on the wealth of previous Christian thought and continues to be relevant to the situation of the Church today. This book is a comprehensive introduction to the whole range of Calvin's theology. Concentrating on Calvin's major work The Institutes of the Christian Religion, Parker explains its relevance to Christians of all times