Sommario/riassunto	Empowering people to realize that they determine their own lives is not easy. Equally difficult is to understand the human psyche with no guarantee of set pattern of behaviour. With winds of change taking charge of business and commerce, Technology outdated concepts day-in and day-out, the task of the corporate to provide right kind of leadership with high power and high skill orientation has become more relevant than before. There is a distinct possibility of companies getting extinct from the scene if right leadership is not triggered as response in the current world of competition. Living
