Sommario/riassunto

This first-of-its-kind anthology offers English-speaking readers a unique chance to become acquainted with the leading Dutch and Flemish women writers since the 1880's. Covering a representative range of public and private genres from poetry, critical essays, travel literature and political commentary to diaries and journals, the fifty-six texts are arranged chronologically and are accompanied by brief introductions, chronologies, and brief guides to the authors and works. It is an important contribution to our understanding of modern European literary canon and the long march of feminist histo
