Sommario/riassunto	This interdisciplinary text examines the sports-Christianity interface from Protestant and Catholic perspectives. In addition to a ""systematic review of literature,"" field-pioneering contributors such as Michael Novak, Shirl Hoffman, Joseph Price and Robert Higgs address a wide range of topics from the sporting world, including biblical athletic metaphors, disability, evangelism, professionalism and celebrity, humility and pride, genetic enhancement technologies, stereotypes, sport as art and British and American historical analyses of sport and Christianity. Insightful chapters from Scot
