

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910785942203321
Autore	Ciges Aparicio M. <1873-1936>
Titolo	On captivity [[electronic resource]] : a Spanish soldier's experience in a Havana prison, 1896-1898 // Manuel Ciges Aparacio ; translated and edited by D.J. Walker ; with a foreword by Christopher Schmidt-Nowara
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, : University of Alabama, c2012
ISBN	0-8173-8622-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (263 p.)
Collana	Atlantic crossings
Altri autori (Persone)	WalkerD. J <1936-> (Dolores J.)
Disciplina	863.62 863/.62
Soggetti	Prisoners of war - Cuba Prisoners of war - Spain Cuba History Revolution, 1895-1898 Prisoners and prisons Cuba History Revolution, 1895-1898 Personal narratives, Spanish
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword by Christopher Schmidt-Nowara; Acknowledgments; Introduction; Part I; Part II; Part III; Appendix: Manuel Ciges Aparicio's Intercepted Letter to Henri Rochefort, Editor of L'Intransigeant; Notes; Bibliography; Index
Sommario/riassunto	On Captivity is the first translation into English of Del Cautiverio, Manuel Ciges Aparicio's account of his imprisonment in the notorious La Cabana fortress in Havana during the Cuban War of Independence (1895-98). Ciges enlisted in the Spanish army in 1893 at the age of twenty. He served in Africa and then in Cuba, where he opposed Spanish General Valeriano Weyler's policies in Cuba as well as the war itself. Ciges soon found himself imprisoned and facing execution for treason as punishment for an article critical of Weyler's conduct