Une bibliothèque pour faire quoi ? 19 écrivains et 1 plasticienne répondent, à leur manière – pour faire un tour, pour regarder un film, pour donner RDV, pour se mettre au chaud, pour lire, pour mettre le feu, pour parler de Flaubert, pour photographier le chantier, pour faire le ménage, pour être seul avec d'autres, pour travailler, pour dormir... Dans des styles différents, entre récits, nouvelles ou témoignages, les auteurs ont composé un portrait à multiples facettes de ce lieu public, et de ses passagers. Leurs textes reflètent aussi les grandes tendances de la littérature contemporaine, tournés pour certains vers le politique ou le social, pour d'autres vers le poétique ou le biographique. De son côté, en photographe, Aurélie Pétrel donne un ancrage visuel à ce Carnet de voyage.

Sommario/riassunto	When confronted by a range of violent actions perpetrated by lone individuals, contemporary society exhibits a constant tendency to react in terms of helpless, even perplexed horror. Seeking explanations for the apparently inexplicable, commentators often hurry to declare the perpetrators as ""evil"". This question is not restricted to individuals: history has repeatedly demonstrated how groups and even entire nations can embark on a criminal plan united by the conviction that they were fighting for a good and just cause. Which circumstances occasioned such actions? What was their motivation?

Sommario/riassunto	By bringing together influential critics of neo-Aristotelian virtue ethics and some of the strongest defenders of an Aristotelian approach, this collection provides a fresh assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of Aristotelian virtue ethics and its contemporary interpretations. Contributors critically discuss and re-assess the neo-Aristotelian paradigm which has been predominant in the philosophical discourse on virtue for the past 30 years.
