

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910787102103321
Autore	Teske Steven
Titolo	Unvarnished Arkansas [[electronic resource]] : The Naked Truth about Nine Famous Arkansans // Steve Teske
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Little Rock, Arkansas : , : Butler Center for Arkansas Studies, , 2012 ©2012
ISBN	1-935106-47-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (185 p.)
Disciplina	976.7
Soggetti	Electronic books. Arkansas History Arkansas Biography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Sandy Faulkner: a successful failure -- Charlie McDermott: he almost invented the airplane -- Solon Borland: he fought for his honor and for his nation -- J. N. Smithee: he didn't just write the news; some days he was the news -- Sid Wallace: outlaw, avenger, or scapegoat? -- Scipio Africanus Jones: Black attorney in a White man's world -- Bernie Babcock: she slept in the basement -- John Brown Watson: "he knew what he thought," and he built a college -- Connie Franklin: after he was murdered, he came to the trial.
Sommario/riassunto	Steven Teske works at the Butler Center for Arkansas Studies, where he is an archival assistant and staff member of the Encyclopedia of Arkansas History & Culture. He also teaches at Arkansas State University-Beebe and is the co-author, with Velma B. Branscum Woody, of Homefront Arkansas: Arkansans Face Wartime, published by the Butler Center in 2009.